JOKAKE OPENS FLAGSTAFF OFFICE

(PHOENIX, AZ). – SEPTEMBER 3, 2008 – Jokake Construction is pleased to announce the opening of a new office in Flagstaff, AZ. The strategically located office serves Jokake’s clients in northern Arizona, namely, Sedona-Oak Creek, Prescott and Flagstaff. With a staff currently in place and mobilized, the new office establishes Jokake’s permanent presence in the growing northern Arizona communities.

"We are proud to call Flagstaff our home and serve the communities of Northern Arizona who share our values and commitment to partnerships," said Rozlyn Lipsey, President of Jokake Construction.

Jokake Construction, an Employee-Owned company, is a full-service relationship-based general contracting and construction management firm specializing in projects for the public, corporate, financial, healthcare, and institutional markets.
