

About Jokake Construction

Jokake Construction is a full-service general contractor that provides an exceptional product and construction experience to its clients, including ground-up construction, renovations and tenant improvements.

The company is employee-owned and focused on construction in several key growth industries, including:

- Commercial
- Healthcare
- Education
- Municipal
- Hospitality
- Critical Facilities
- Speciality Services

Jokake takes pride in providing all the capabilities of larger contractors with a uniquely personal, flexible and cost-effective approach. From small speciality trade projects to full-scale construction of public and commercial facilities, the Jokake team of experts focuses on delivering superior quality, no matter what the project. Jokake specializes in working in and around occupied building environments, so that its clients can continue to conduct business with a minimum impact on their employees or customers during every phase of construction.

Jokake is deeply entrenched in the Arizona construction market, with 70 full-time owner/employees who have a vested interest in the success of its clients and their projects. The company was founded by brothers Mike and Gary Smith in 1983 with a commitment to creating a corporate culture of trust, compassion, and rigor that continues to define Jokake today.
